

Dear Parents,

We are so excited about the enthusiasm we have seen with 100 book challenge.

This pamphlet includes do's and don'ts about 100 book challenge at home.

It is made to help you, the parent, be a successful reading coach and help your child make growth in reading.

Remember that the 100 book challenge focuses on INDEPENDENT reading.

If you have any questions please contact your child's teacher.

Become a Reading Coach

Use Skill Cards

If your child makes a mistake...wait, give them a chance to work it out!

Think & talk about the book after reading. (Talk about the ideas not the words.)

Use a comprehension question from the skill card to start a discussion.

Take 5 minutes to practice your child's power goal. This is the goal the teacher has asked him/her to practice.

Do

* Have your child make-up missed steps for days they are absent from school; 4 total.

(2 from school & 2 from home)

Ensure your child reads for 30 minutes each night.

Allow your child to complete his/her log.

If you child is in Yellow or Green books, you may read to your child for 15 minutes and have your child log one step.

Return books and reading log to school every day.

Eliminate distractions by turning off

- TV
- computers
- electronics
- games

Log a minimum of 2 steps over the weekend...

- 1 step Friday
- 1 step Saturday

Look forward to time each evening reading with your child.

Celebrate your child's success.

Don'ts

Don't log every book your child reads.

Don't test your child on their reading.

Don't forget to read!

Don't leave books and logs at home.
